Senate Notified

A committee from the House of Representatives appeared at the Bar of the Senate and Mr. Dunagan for the committee notified the Senate that the House was organized and ready to transact business.

Recess

On motion of Senator Hardeman the Senate at 11:55 o'clock a.m. took recess until 11:00 o'clock a.m. tomorrow.

In Memory of Fred Farrel Florence

Senator Parkhouse offered the following resolution:

(Senate Concurrent Resolution 3)

Whereas, On the twenty-fifth day of December, 1960, death came to Fred Farrel Florence, a man whose contributions to the world of business and finance were exceeded only by his gifts for the welfare of others; and

Whereas, He was born in New York City, November 5, 1891, the son of Mose and Celia (Freedman) Florence. He moved with his parents to Rusk, Texas, at an early age; and

Whereas, He began his banking career in 1907, handling with diligence the tasks which were assigned him in the First National Bank of Rusk, and from that point advancing through the ranks to become head of the largest commercial banking house in the South, and one of two Texans ever to be elected President of the American Bankers Association; and

Whereas, He felt a deep and over-riding obligation to his fellow man, which led him to direct the tremendous power of his personality, as well as his tangible assets, into enterprises and institutions whose purpose it is to elevate mankind, to alleviate suffering, and to better the earthly lot of those about him everywhere, such as can be attested by his efforts on behalf of the Southwestern Medical Foundation, the Texas Research Foundation, The National Foundation, Southern Methodist University, the Dallas Rehabilitation Institute, St. Paul's Hospital, the Salvation Army, Community Chest, the Boy Scouts of America, the United Cerebral Palsy Association, and scores of kindred enterprises too numerous to mention; and

Whereas, His efforts for others transcended the boundaries of creed or doctrine, as evidenced in 1959 by his receipt of the Benemerenti Medal, highest award given by the Catholic faith to a non-Catholic, presented on behalf of His Holiness Pope John XXIII; and

Whereas, Fred F. Florence, a man of humble origin, through his stewardship of the spiritual and material gifts of Almighty God came to stand in good favor before presidents and kings; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That in the passing of Fred Farrel Florence, the Senate of Texas mourns the loss of a great and good man whose deeds in behalf of his city, state and nation shall be long remembered; that as a tribute to his memory this Resolution be and hereby is adopted by the Senate, the House of Representatives concurring, and printed in its Journal; and that when we adjourn today, we do so in his honor; and, be it further

Resolved, That copies of this Resolution be conveyed to each surviving member of his family as an expression of our sympathy.

PARKHOUSE

CALHOUN
